Good morning! I'm glad that you are worshipping with us today, whether online or in person. As you listen to the sermon, fill in what you are discovering. When you are done, turn it in to Elizabeth either by email or by putting it in the "Return Box". We hope this will be helpful to you and to us!

Pastor Austin tells us that he made a cartoon strip when he was a kid. Do you like to be creative by drawing, writing, playing music, dancing, or in other ways? In what ways do you think that God can use your creativity to honor Him? _____

_____

How has God shown his faithfulness to you in the past?

_____

_____

Baptism is a reminder of God's faithfulness to us. Next week, Deagan McDonald is going to be baptized. Write out a prayer that you'd like to pray for Deagan and his family.

_____

_____

Communion reminds us that we are unified with Christ and with each other. Reflect on the thought of this unity. _____

_____

Pastor Austin talks about walking through cemeteries which has helped him to think about priorities in life. What do you want to prioritize in your life? _____

_____

What is something specific that you can do this week that aligns with your priorities? _____

_____
