Moses stands up for the shepherds at the well when other shepherds were chasing them away. Think of a time when you stood up for someone or supported them when they were going through a difficult time.

Moses' response to the situation with the shepherds was a definite improvement over his reaction toward the Egyptian beating the Hebrew. Think of a time in your life when God helped you to make an improvement in how you handled a situation, compared to how you handled it in the past.

God loves His children so much and never gives up on them. A big part of never giving up on you means that He refines you and helps you to grow into who He wants you to be. What is something in your life that you want God to help you improve? This could be a bad habit you want to drop or a good habit you want to start.
